About Me

Born and raised in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, I've always loved working with, and being creative with technology. I decided to go into UX Design because it allows me to enjoy a day-to-day work life of doing something I'm passionate about.

I have a wide range of experience working with and for the public from my early career working in customer service, and from my professional career doing freelance video editing. I've developed a strong ability to identify what people are looking for and deliver an efficient, high-quality service.

My passions/hobbies include spending time with family, traveling, and playing basketball.
